

FINCONET / CENTRAL BANK OF BRAZIL INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

OPEN BANKING: DEVELOPMENTS, IMPACTS AND CHALLENGES

Source: Prado Fotografia (Brasilia) / Andrew Prokos (Congresso Nacional) / Beta Naciti (BCB)

8 November 2018
Brasilia, Brazil

CENTRAL BANK OF BRAZIL / FINCONET INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

OPEN BANKING: DEVELOPMENTS, IMPACTS AND CHALLENGES

Thursday 8 November 2018 (half-day)

Note: this Seminar will be included as a joint event in the Central Bank of Brazil IV Financial Citizenship Forum. The timings below therefore may change slightly in line with the Forum Agenda. FinCoNet members are invited to attend the afternoon session of the Forum.

| | |
|----------------------|---|
| 8:30 – 9:00 | Arrival |
| 9:00 – 9:30 | Opening Remarks Mr. Otávio Damaso – Deputy Governor for Regulation - Central Bank of Brazil Lucie Tedesco - FinCoNet Chair |
| 9:30 – 10:35 | OPEN BANKING: A challenge to ensure informed and adequate consent from consumers concerning data collection, use and sharing This session will discuss the privacy and security of personal data in the context of open banking. Moderator: Flore-Anne Messy – Head of the Financial Affairs Division - OECD Panellists: - Diogo José Sousa da Silva - Coordinator at the Financial System Regulation Department - Central Bank of Brazil - Maria Lúcia Leitão – Vice Chair of FinCoNet and Head of the Banking Conduct Supervision Department of the Central Bank of Portugal - Patricia Peck - Founding-Partner - Patrícia Peck Pinheiro Advogados |
| 10:35 – 11:05 | Coffee break |
| 11:05 – 12:25 | OPEN BANKING: Impacts of Open Banking This session will discuss the impacts, as well as risks and challenges of Open Banking on the economics and financial consumer protection at national and international level. Moderator: Fábio Lacerda – Deputy Head of Supervision Department - Central Bank of Brazil Panellists: - Carlos Rudnei Dutz - Digital Business Manager - Banco do Brasil - Renata Feijó – Legal, Institutional Relations and Compliance Director – GuiaBolso - Carolina Martins Souza – Innovation and Digital Channels Manager – Febraban - Christopher Green - Group Senior Manager - ASIC |
| 12:25 – 12:30 | Closing Session |